DEPARTMENTAL BULLETIN NO. 9

22 June 2006

INMATE WORK DETAIL – DMAVA CAMPUS

1. This bulletin is an information alert to all DMAVA Lawrenceville employees. Starting Monday, June 26, 2006, the NJ Department of Corrections will be providing a New Jersey State Corrections 'Inmate work detail' for the DMAVA campus.
2. The work detail will consist of approximately ten inmates and a Corrections supervisor. The inmates will be given work assignments and schedules that have been requested by the DMAVA leadership. This inmate program will assist the Department in maintaining and improving the building and grounds of our Department of Military and Veterans Affairs.
3. This interagency cooperation between our Department and Corrections is certainly positive. The work detail will report to Armorer Al Wood who will be the contact person for the department and who will coordinate all requests and assignments
4. Please do not interface or interact with the inmates. If an issue were to arise, contact Al Wood immediately. There are specific prohibitions on the interaction between DMAVA employees and inmates.
5. The inmates will be identified by khaki trousers and bright orange shirts. Department of Corrections inmates are used throughout other state facilities to assist in assorted maintenance projects.
6. Questions concerning this bulletin should be addressed to Joe Lech at 530-7015 or Col (Ret) Alan C. Bunting at 530-6916.
